Wyndham Gettysburg Recognized as 2008 Wyndham Hotel of the Year

GETTYSBURG, PA (June 11, 2009) – The Wyndham Gettysburg hotel today announced that it has been named 2008 Hotel of the Year by the Wyndham Hotels and Resorts® brand, the highest honor in the upscale hotel chain’s portfolio.

Wyndham Gettysburg General Manager Brad Baer accepted the award at the Wyndham brand’s recent conference in Puerto Rico.

To be eligible for the award, a hotel must have demonstrated outstanding characteristics in all areas of hospitality, offering excellence in customer service and quality as well as playing an active and positive role in the local community.

“The Wyndham Gettysburg is testament to the exceptional quality and personalized service culture of the Wyndham Hotels and Resorts brand,” said Jeff Wagoner, Wyndham Hotels and Resorts brand president. “I congratulate the staff on this momentous achievement and thank them for their ongoing commitment to delivering outstanding guest experiences for Gettysburg visitors.”

“This recognition is a credit to our staff members who have always been motivated by delivering great experiences to our guests”, said Brad Baer, General Manager of the Wyndham Gettysburg. “It is a pleasure to work with hospitality minded individuals that deliver on quality service and also share a passion for the history and charm of Gettysburg.”
